THE UNION GROCERY CO.

The All-Star bowling team of this city visited Lynchburg Monday evening and played a series of three games with the team at that place. Two of the three were won by Hillsboro in exciting finishes. A return series will be played on Scarborough's alleys on West Main street Thursday evening to which the public and ladies especially are invited.

James F. Doggett.

James F. Doggett was born October 27th, 1821, at Culpepper C. H., Virginia, and died at Hillsboro, Ohio, April 17th, 1900. At the age of ten years he came to Hillsboro with his parents, traveling overland by wagon train. Here for many years he worked at his trade as painter and paper hanger, playing in the band and being leader of the leader of the choir at the M. E. Church, of which he was a member for many years. At the breaking out of the war he at once joined the Union Army and was a member of a military band in the three months service. He then joined the 60th O. V. I. and escaped capture at Harper's Ferry by hiding on a mule. In August, 1862, he joined Co. A, 89th O. V. I. as a private and September 10th, 1862, he was made Commissary Sergeant, and served as such in the regiment with Col. Glenn, Capt. J. H. Mullenix and Capt. J. B. Foraker. He belonged to this regiment until mustered out in June, 1865. He was a member of the G. A. R. and the oldest surviving member of LaFayette Lodge I. O. O. F., having been an Odd Fellow for more than 56 years. His widow and eight children survive him, three children having preceded him to the Better Land. He was an honest man, a good citizen, a kind husband and father and a loyal soldier and lodge man. The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 10:30 at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and assisted by the G. A. R.

Turnpike Fight.

The County Commissioners were in session several days last week and Monday of this week until late in the night hearing the petition and remonstrance in the Buford turnpike. The pike runs from Buford and intersects the Hillsboro-Pricetown pike a half mile south of Danville. It has been before the Commissioners before being defeated about two years ago. The petitioners and remonstrators are about evenly divided and a large crowd has been in attendance throughout the proceedings. Hough & Wilson represent the petitioners and Dawson & Duckwall the remonstrators.

Death of J. W. Bridwell.

A telegram was received from Harman, Tenn., Tuesday morning announcing the sudden death of J. W. Bridwell, and that the remains would arrive in Hillsboro Wednesday morning. For many years Mr. Bridwell was a citizen of Hillsboro and was well known to the public through his connection with The Herald, of which he was for a long time editor. His daughter, Mrs. George R. Shepherd, still resides here. It was not known here that he was seriously ill and the announcement of his death was a surprise and shock to all who knew him. Funeral services were held at Harman and the remains will be taken direct from the depot to the cemetery here.

Republican Club.

A movement is on foot among a number of the young men in Hillsboro to organize a political and social club. Thirty-three young Republicans have already signed the roll and a committee is now looking for suitable quarters. It is intended to make the club a permanent one and combine social features with politics. Burch Huggins will probably be the first president. The leaders in the movement are Roy Hixson, Lyne Smith, Granville Barrere, Robt. Boulware, Will Coffman, Burch Huggins and "Josh" Underwood.

The Manhattan Restaurant.

The well-known Foley Restaurant on West Main street changed hands last week. For years this has been one of the best stands in Hillsboro, and the new proprietors, Enos. H. and George R. Shepherd, who are two of our most popular young men, will no doubt secure a large trade. While they are making extensive improvements on the inside, they have also changed the name and it will now be known as "The Manhattan." A fine line of confections always on hand. The best and most popular brands of cigars. Meals and special orders filled at all hours. Everything right at popular prices.

Funeral Director.

Banks & Fling, undertakers, have employed S. Lewis Holmes as funeral director. They carry a complete line of undertaking supplies. Prompt and satisfactory service guaranteed. Main office at the Hillsboro Lumber & Coal Co., two doors west of postoffice. Night calls should be left at Mr. Holmes' residence, 4 doors south of Catholic Church.
